

Basic Detail Report

Le Mort

Date

1829

Medium

Ink on paper, Hand colored lithograph

Description

George IV and Lady Conyngham weep over the dead giraffe, Lord Eldon (at right) plays a bagpipe, 2 Nubians weep in the background at left. Below title, "Suppose and suppose the Giraffe it should die / Old Bags he should play over Him, we'd sit down and cry" Print made by John Doyle, Printed by Joseph Netherclift

Dimensions

12.75 x 18.5 in (32 x 47 cm)